Technical Outlook

Nifty (25,349.65): 26000-mark triggers profit booking.

Nifty 50 touched an intraday high near the 26,000 marks before witnessing sharp profit booking. The index declined 1.75% to close at 25,366. Despite the broader weakness, IT, Consumer Durables, India Digital, Midcap IT and Realty sectors managed to close in the green.

On the daily chart, the index has retraced its recent extended up move and is approaching its immediate demand zone near 25,200, followed by the earlier support at 25,000. The profit booking was largely driven by monthly expiry-related volatility and overbought conditions. However, the broader bullish structure remains intact.

Strategy: Maintain a bullish bias and look for stock-specific buying opportunities on declines towards the 25,000-support zone.

Bank Nifty (62,585.35): Profit booking triggers selling.

Bank Nifty formed a bearish engulfing candle, reversing the previous session's bullish move and closing in the red. Market breadth remained negative, with Union Bank, IndusInd Bank, Bank of Baroda, Axis Bank and Canara Bank among the key laggards.

On the daily chart, the broader trend remains positive, with the immediate demand zone placed at 61,800–61,500, which is expected to act as the first line of support. The moving averages continue to signal a positive bias, while the RSI momentum oscillator remains in the overbought zone.

Follow-through price action around the support zone will be crucial in determining the next directional move.
