Nifty's bullish structure remains intact, with a sustained move above 26,000 emerging as the next key trigger.

Technical Outlook

Nifty (25,819.25): Index recovers form demand zone.

Nifty 50 recovered from the previous session's losses and closed in positive territory. FMCG, Pharma, Private Banks and Consumer Durables witnessed fresh buying interest.

On the daily chart, the index attempted to move towards the 26,000 mark but settled near 25,800. The broader structure remains bullish, with the immediate demand zone placed at 25,500–25,300. The positioning of moving averages and momentum oscillators remains positive, indicating the possibility of an eventual breakout above 26,000.

Strategy: Maintain a positive bias for the day and look to accumulate on declines towards the 25,500–25,300 demand zone.

Bank Nifty (63,703.25): Index witnessed a breather.

Bank Nifty witnessed buying interest from its demand zone, with HDFC Bank, ICICI Bank, Union Bank and IDFC First Bank trading in positive territory.

On the daily chart, the index formed an inside-body candle, indicating a pause following the previous session's bearish move. Technically, prices remain in the overbought zone, while 66,000 remains the immediate short-term upside target. We would consider initiating fresh long positions only on declines towards the 62,000 mark.

In case of further profit booking, we would prefer to ride the momentum through selective, stock-specific long opportunities rather than chase the index.
