Technical Outlook

Nifty (23,865.75): Index consolidates in range.

Nifty 50 extended its correction for the third consecutive session, declining 80.50 points to close at 23,865.75. Sectorally, Chemicals, Defence, and Realty witnessed buying interest, while the index approached its key demand zone near 23,800.

Technically, the broader trend remains bullish as the index continues to trade close to its short-term moving averages. The RSI remains above 50, indicating that the underlying momentum is still positive. The monthly close has also formed a Doji candlestick, reflecting market indecision after the recent correction.

We continue to maintain a positive bias and recommend accumulating on declines, with a decisive breakout above 24,200 likely to trigger the next leg of the rally.

Bank Nifty (57,542.90): Heads towards demand zone.

Bank Nifty ended the month on a strong note with gains of 6.09%, although the index witnessed some profit booking on the daily chart. Despite the short-term correction, the broader trend remains firmly bullish.

Private sector banks such as ICICI Bank, Axis Bank, and AU Small Finance Bank are expected to continue leading the momentum. Technically, the 100-EMA near 56,353 provides a strong support base, while the RSI at 60 indicates there is still room for further upside.

We expect Bank Nifty to trade in the 57,000–58,500 range in the near term. The overall structure remains positive, with a medium-term target of 60,000, and any decline should be viewed as an opportunity to accumulate long positions.
