Technical Outlook

Nifty (23,962.80): Support at 23800 marks.

Nifty 50 traded with volatility and ended the session with a modest gain of 0.34%. On the sectoral front, Realty, Media, and the Nifty Microcap 250 index outperformed and closed in the green, while the broader market remained largely range bound.

Technically, the daily chart indicates a cautious-to-weak structure, with momentum showing signs of fading. The 23,800 level has now emerged as the key make-or-break support for the index. As long as the index sustains above this level, the broader structure remains intact. However, a decisive breach below 23,800 could trigger further downside and weaken the prevailing trend.

We reiterate our cautious stance and recommend investors reduce long positions on a sustained break below 23,800,

Bank Nifty (57,252.45): Undertone bullish.

Bank Nifty formed an inside-body candlestick pattern and closed the session with marginal gains of around 500 points. Market breadth remained positive, with an advance-decline ratio of 13:1.

The current price action suggests a cautious near-term outlook, with immediate demand expected around the 56,200 level, followed by stronger support near 55,800. As long as these support levels remain intact, the broader trend is expected to stay positive.

Any corrective decline towards the identified support zones should be viewed as an opportunity to accumulate long positions.
